NEW YEARS EVE 2008!
BIG BAND BLUES STARRING BRICKHOUSE
SPONSORED BY GUINNESS

Vancouver, BC – Bring in the New Year on Monday, December 31 at the legendary Yale Hotel and create memories to last a lifetime! Dance to the music of Vancouver’s hottest party band Brickhouse with special guests, enjoy scrumptious catering, party favors and complimentary champagne at midnight!

For over 12 years, fans have hummed, sung and even lived the songs that bring them back, time and time again. Singer Rob Bracken invites you into the kitchen, where sights, smells and sounds are tossed on a groove and served on a platter.

Dubbed as “Vancouver’s busiest band” by on air host Stormin’ Norman of Rock 101, Brickhouse (www.brickhousetheband.com) performs over 200 shows a year. The stellar ensemble is well respected among musicians for making a difference where ‘song’ is the focus, accompanied by individual inspiration. On any given night, old and new friends congregate onstage to take part in the classic “Brickhouse” experience. With a list of original material that rivals the number of keys on a full size piano, Brickhouse delivers a sound that is forever evolving and shaping into a new album.

Tickets to New Years Eve 2008: Big Band Blues starring Brickhouse are $60 in advance or $65 at the door. Advance ticket sales are available by contacting The Yale at 604.681.9253 or online at www.theyale.ca.
